Audition Contract

Tooele Valley
Academy of Dance

If you [or your child] are selected to participate in the performance, you will be expected to wear appropriate shoes and tights, and may be required to either pay a small costume rental fee or provide part of your costume. Judges are chosen at the director's discretion. Judges decisions are final. Casting adjustments may be made by the director based on whether commitments to schedule and code of conduct are observed. As Director, Ms. Sarah may forego auditions or audition results for certain roles and cast at her will. By signing below you agree to the terms of auditioning, including a commitment to attend required rehearsals/performances. Further, you understand the penalty of breaking the terms of this contract to be a relinquishment of participation in the auditioned role you [and/or your child] were cast in. Recasting decisions will be made at the director's discretion. The Board of Directors asks that you do not directly contact the Ballet Director to question casting decisions. Any communication regarding the casting of the show should be made to the Board of Directors via email at board@tvadance.org up to one week after the Cast List has posted.

I have read, I understand, and I agree to the terms of this contract:
